Kubb a Scandinavian Lawn Game – on the Courthouse Lawn (between 3rd and Campbell)

Kubb is an outdoor lawn game played on grass where opponents on each side of a small field try to knock down wooden blocks of the person they are playing before they knock down their blocks. There are rumors that Kubb was invented by the Vikings a thousand years ago, but it most likely started on the island of Gotland in Sweden, out in the Baltic Sea, in the 1920s or a little earlier. A lot of times people compare it to a combination of horseshoe, bocce, and bowling Kubb has very strong roots in Sweden and the Scandinavian region.
